Prerequisites

Introduction to Women and Gender Studies (L77 100), Masculinities (L77 208B/308B), OR previous related coursework and permission of instructor strongly recommended but not required. Contact instructor with any questions.

Course Description

This course is interdisciplinary survey of expressions of masculinity and male gender in global perspective with an emphasis on non-Western cultures. Themes and topics include the increasingly global culture and economy, terrorism, international relations, development policy, colonization/imperialism, and war/militarism, as well as specific cultural, social and national expressions of masculinity across a wide geographical range.

Course Objectives:

- to acquire an appreciation of the global variance of masculinity/male gender expressions
- to understand the effects of cultural, political, social, and economic globalization on local and national systems of male sex and masculine gender
- to develop more advanced research and writing skills on gender topics
- to become better acquainted with current international writings on male gender/masculinity.

Course requirements:

1. Attendance and Participation (20% of course grade): Regular attendance and active participation in class discussions and activities is required. Quiet/shy students should consult with instructor if they are concerned about fulfilling this requirement. Because each day in our class equals a week of classes, students will be allowed only one unexcused absence without grade penalty. Otherwise, only serious, documented absences will be excused.

2. Midterm paper and presentation: masculinities area study (25% for paper, 10% for presentation; due date: 18 Oct.) A team of two students will write a 6-8 pp.paper and brief presentation on masculinities in a cultural or geographic area we are NOT discussing in class: Oceania (Australia, New Zealand, South Pacific Islands), Russia, South America, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, Tibet, Southeast Asia (Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand, etc.), Asian Islands (Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, etc.). U.S., Canada, and Western European topics are OFF LIMITS!

3. Final research paper and presentation: global masculinities theme study. (35% for paper, 10% for presentation; paper due: 6 Dec.; presentations: 29 Nov., 6 Dec.) An 8-10 pp. research paper and 15-20 minute presentation of findings from research paper due at end of class. Available topics: international relations, globalization, terrorism, colonialism/imperialism, development, foreign aid, militarism, comparative sexualities, nationalisms, diplomacy, sexual trafficking/sex trade, HIV/AIDS health. This is an individual project.

Grading

General policies:

-all students must complete all course requirements to pass class; Pass/Fail students must earn a 70/C- in each of the four requirements to pass the class;

-late assignments will be penalized one letter grade per 24 hour-period late; clock starts at beginning of class on due date; clock stops when assignment reaches instructor;

What a letter grade means:

-A range (90-100): superior work demonstrating a mastery of course content; exceeds assignment requirements; exceptional paper, journal or contribution to class;

-B range (80-90): above average, solid work that exceeds expectations but nevertheless requires some work to be exceptional;

-C range (70-80): work only fulfills the minimum requirements of assignment and/or is seriously deficient in some regard;

-D range (60-70): work fails to address most of the assignment requirements, or is seriously flawed in a number of regards;

-F (below 60): work does not in any way fulfill minimum standards for assignment requirements; or, clearly violates Academic Integrity Policy (see below);

- NG (0) failure to turn in a given assignment; counted as a zero for course grade calculations; also, this grade is occasionally given to work which results from a misunderstanding of the assignment but is acceptable in every other way and deserves another attempt;
- I (incomplete): may be given at instructor's discretion when the overall quality of work is high but one or more course requirement remains unfinished at the end of the class; CAUTION: I grades not completed within one semester automatically revert to F.

Letter to number table:

A+=98-100	B+=88-89	C+=78-79	D+=68-69	F+0-59
A =93-97	B =83-87	C =73-77	D =63-67	NG=0
A- =90-92	B- =80-82	C- =70-72	D- =60-62	I=incomplete

Schedule of Topics and Readings

Schedule subject to adjustment; please read each text and be prepared to discuss it on day listed. Each class (as noted) will start with presentations by a student 'geographer' followed by an introduction to discussion led by one student. 'Geographers' are responsible for making a brief presentation with handout on the history, politics, economics, and geography of the area/country we are looking at each week. Student discussion leaders will make brief statements summarizing the topic and argument of the readings and initiate/moderate class discussion.
